Singapore Chemical Industry Council awarded the SCDF Strategic Partner Award

Singapore, 15 September 2011- The Singapore Chemical Industry Council (SCIC) today received the Strategic Partner Award 2011 presented by the Singapore Civil Defence Force (SCDF).

The Strategic Partner Award was introduced by SCDF as a recognition to organisation for their substantial support and participation with the agency in the mutual exchange of knowledge and expertise.

SCIC Executive Director, Mr Terence Koh said ‘SCIC is indeed honoured to receive this award and will continue to work closely with SCDF to help build a more robust and safe environment for the Singapore Chemical Industry.’ Mr Koh also applauded the dedicated efforts put forth by the SCIC Board, the Regulatory Affairs committee and the Responsible Care committee in helping to foster a stronger working relationship with the regulatory agencies.

This award is presented by Deputy Prime Minister, Mr Teo Chee Hean, who is also Coordinating Minister for National Security and Minister for Home Affairs, to SCIC Chairman, Dr Tay Kin Bee, during the Civil Defence Parade Day on 15 September 2011.
